SPECIAL OLYMPICS GEORGIA 1ST ANNUAL POLAR PLUNGE
FEB. 20TH AT LAKE LANIER ISLANDS BEACH & WATERPARK

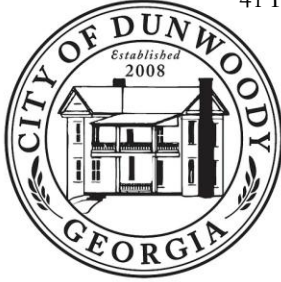

The Dunwoody Police, along with several other agencies, participated in the 1st Annual Polar Plunge at Lake Lanier Islands on 022010. The Dunwoody Police Department won several awards for their participation. Dunwoody Police raised approximately $5,700 for the event. This was the highest amount raised among the other teams. The Dunwoody Police also won an award for the best costume and having the oldest plunger. Overall, the Polar Plunge brought in over $40,000. All proceeds will benefit the 22,769 athletes of Special Olympics Georgia.

Special Olympics Georgia (SOGA)

SOGA provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for nearly 23,000 children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills, and friendships with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.
